

Indian Queens School

School Aims

Our school aims to ensure that all pupils:

- strive always to be the best that they can be;
- develop spiritual, moral, social and cultural understanding throughout the curriculum and in all aspects of school life and beyond;
- develop an appreciation and wonder of our world, its diversity, complexity and richness;
- develop the ability to reason logically, and think, with a lively and enquiring mind, to question and solve problems;
- foster an interest in, and enthusiasm for, the acquisition of knowledge and the development of one's own talents and interests, in order to achieve fulfilment and enjoyment in, both as an individual and as a member of a wider community;
- develop an appreciation of human achievements and aspirations;
- contribute to all aspects of school life;
- promote the safety and wellbeing of everyone within the school;
- enjoy the day to day life of school with humour, tolerance and kindness to others.

Curriculum Aims

Within a structured and carefully planned curriculum, the school aims to help each child, in their own way to:

- develop the ability to question and to put forward their points of view rationally;
- acquire and extend language, mathematical, scientific and technological skills and to make use of these skills in their wider aspects of learning;
- acquire the knowledge, understanding and skills as defined within the National Curriculum;
- apply themselves to a variety of practical tasks, making decisions both independently and within a group, as appropriate;
- acquire good learning habits including self-discipline and independence in learning;
- develop the ability to use their own initiative and recognise their own creative ability;
- recognise their own potential, be critical of their work and aim towards self-improvement in all areas;
- recognise and celebrate their achievements and successes.
